1.	Approval of Minutes from last meeting.
	The minutes of the meeting on Thursday 1st Oct 2015 were signed as a true record and signed by Paul Taylor and Sue Hinton.
2.	Correspondance. There was a email sent from Ian Stephens of The Parish Council saying Well done to the team and praise and good comments on Facebook.
3.	Treasurers Report. Sale of food £422.40 Sale of Drink £315.40 Gate Bucket £577.87 (AH) reported that theTotal Income was £1315.67 and after all expenses there was a loss of £8.67 There was however a lot of stock carried over for the next event, sausages, burgers and mulled wine. Also 22 sausages and 16 burgers still in Rick Pallisters freezer.
4	Wash up from Bonfire Night Things to improve next year Inventory of stock to be done Only purchase one packet of veggie burgers. No hot chocolate next year as did not sell well at all. More cooking utensils needed. More soft drinks. Bonfire to be lit earlier. Increase prices of burgers and sausages by 50p. Supply white wine and red wine also. Mulled Cider to be served cooler.
5	Event suggestions for next year. Music Event in June (PT) to look at prices of Bands. A donation bucket was suggested on the gate for this event, and a barbecue and raffle as usual. The scarecrow competition will be repeated again as was a huge success last year. (AH) suggested a Race Night in the Village Hall, after the success of the one held at the Jubilee events we could hold another one in the spring, March or April. AOB The next meeting will be on Wednesday 10th February at 7.30pm at The Portman Arms.
